Une requête lexicale pour capter les publications relatives à l'agriculture biologique dans ProdINRA.

Guillaume Ollivier, INRA Ecodéveloppement, avril 2019

La requête lexicale suivante permet de capter les publications déposées dans l'archive ProdINRA. Elle utilise la syntaxe de la « recherche experte » de ProdINRA en cherchant les mêmes termes dans les champs titre (ti), résumé (abstract) et mots-clés (kw) des notices. Il suffit de copier la requête dans le champs « Equation de recherche ». Les termes sont anglais et français, principales langues utilisées dans ProdINRA, et sont composés d'expressions déclinant des produits, des productions et des institutions qualifiées de biologique ou d'organic. La requête a été testée dans le cadre d'une analyse quantitative globale de la production de l'INRA sur l'agriculture biologique, qui tolère un léger bruit dans les résultats (taux de faux négatifs évalué à 3.3 %).
